SUMMARY OF THE FACTS OF THE CASE/CHARGES

Dr Ruja IGNATOVA, Doctor of Law, is suspected of having, as the driving force and intellectual inventor of the alleged cryptocurrency "OneCoin", induced investors all over the world to invest in this actually worthless "currency".

The fraud-related loss established so far is in the upper double-digit million range. The loss caused on a global scale probably amounts to several billion USD.

The wanted person's whereabouts have been unknown since 25 October 2017, and she has not appeared in public since this date, neither in connection with OneCoin nor otherwise.

INFORMATION WANTED

Have you seen Dr Ruja IGNATOVA after 25 October 2017?

Can you provide any information on the whereabouts of the wanted person?

In particular cases, the information provided can be treated as confidential.

CAUTION!

IGNATOVA or possible persons accompanying her might be armed!

It is probable that the wanted person is staying abroad, possibly with potential supporters.

A reward of up to 5.000 € is offered to any crucial information leading to an arrest of the perpetrator. The award and distribution will be decided under exclusion of legal action. This reward is intended exclusively for private individuals and not for public officials whose professional duties include the prosecution of criminal offenses.
